Day One | Friday 5th June

DUBLIN | CARLOW | WEXFORD

As we depart Dún Laoghaire, our Retro route takes us from Dublin to Wexford through the stunning Wicklow Mountains offering a breathtaking scenic route, through wild, rugged landscapes, glacial valleys, and charming villages. The journey provides the most picturesque experience and stunning views. After lunch our journey takes us to our first overnight in the Sunny Southeast to the lively Wexford Town.

Day Two | Saturday 6th June

WEXFORD | TIPPERARY | WATERFORD

On our second day we head inland toward the iconic V-shaped mountain pass through the Knockmealdowns, offering stunning panoramic views of the Golden Vale before travelling along the Copper Coastline towards our second overnight in Waterford City, Ireland's oldest city and a vibrant cultural hub. This route combines coast, countryside, history, and breathtaking scenery that are not to be missed!
