GRAND HIGHLANDS
ROAD TRIP XVI

The return of the Highlands...

Join us as we return to Scotland for spectacular driving roads, breathtaking Highland scenery and 5 star luxury hotels across four unforgettable nights.

18TH – 22ND March '27

Overview

The Grand Highlands Tour returns for 2027, with a spectacular five-star journey through Scotland. Beginning at the iconic Trump Turnberry Hotel, our route takes us along the Ayrshire coastline to Edinburgh, where we'll spend our first evening at the luxurious five-star W Edinburgh.

From there, we head north into the heart of the Scottish Highlands, taking in some Cannonball favourites, breathtaking mountain scenery, picturesque lochs and spectacular driving roads. Our journey includes two nights at the five-star Ness Walk in Inverness, before concluding with a final evening at the magnificent five-star Crossbasket Castle Estate.

The Route

Starting in Edinburgh, our route takes us north towards Inverness for two nights, with a full day dedicated to exploring the Highlands and some familiar Cannonball favourites. From there, we make our way south for the final leg of our journey, concluding four days of driving with a memorable final evening at Crossbasket Estate.

DAY ONE

THURSDAY 18TH MARCH

Trump Turnberry - Ayr - Culzean Castle - W Edinburgh

Our Grand Highlands Tour begins at the five-star Trump Turnberry Hotel, overlooking the stunning Ayrshire coastline. From here, we set off on our first drive, taking in the coastal scenery of southwest Scotland before making our way to our lunch stop.

The afternoon continues towards the historic capital of Edinburgh, where we'll spend our first evening at the luxurious five-star W Edinburgh - Scottish Hotel of the Year 2025.

DAY TWO

FRIDAY 19TH MARCH

W Edinburgh - Pitlochry - Cairngorms National Park - Ness Walk, Inverness

Leaving Edinburgh behind, Day Two takes us north into the Scottish Highlands, passing through the picturesque landscapes of Perthshire and the charming town of Pitlochry.

Our journey continues through the highlands and alongside the Cairngorms National Park before reaching Inverness, where we'll spend the next two nights at the luxurious five-star Ness Walk Hotel.

DAY THREE

SATURDAY 20TH MARCH

Ness Walk, Inverness - Loch Ness - Ness Walk, Inverness

Day Three takes us deeper into the Scottish Highlands, exploring some of Scotland's most iconic landscapes and spectacular driving roads.

From the shores of Loch Ness to the dramatic mountain scenery of Glen Shiel and Eilean Donan Castle, the day promises breathtaking views along the way before returning to the five-star Ness Walk in Inverness for our second evening.

DAY FOUR

SUNDAY 21ST MARCH

Ness Walk, Inverness - Perthshire - Crossbasket Estate

Our final day takes us south from Inverness, through more of Scotland's spectacular Highland scenery, winding roads and picturesque landscapes. Our journey concludes at the magnificent five-star Crossbasket Castle Estate, a beautifully restored historic castle set within landscaped grounds just outside Glasgow.

Renowned for its luxurious accommodation, exceptional dining and rich Scottish heritage, Crossbasket provides the perfect setting for our final evening together.

DAY FIVE

MONDAY 22ND MARCH

Crossbasket Estate - Ayr - Cairnryan - Homeward

The final day is a relaxed journey home, with guests departing at their own pace. Irish participants make their way towards the ferry at Cairnryan, while others begin their onward journeys, bringing the Grand Highlands Tour 2027 to a close.
